General Introduction

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (WPCU) is an annual ecumenical celebration which traditionally takes place between January 18th (the Feast of the Confession of Saint Peter) and January 25th (the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul) in the northern hemisphere. In celebrating the WPCU, Christians around the world are invited to pray for the unity of all Christians, to reflect on Scripture together, to participate in jointly-organized ecumenical services and events, and to share fellowship.

The purpose of the WPCU resources, and of the following suggestions, is to assist communities and parishes / congregations in creating inclusive, ecumenical celebrations for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. While the materials provided in this year’s kit can be used to craft a WPCU-themed service or event in your own parish or congregation, that is not our goal. Our intention is that worship services and events for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity be truly ecumenical, promoted widely, and draw leaders and participants from a broad range of Christian traditions in your community.

We encourage you to be creative in your use of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity resources! For example, you may wish to alter the ecumenical worship service to better suit the context of your community, or you may draw inspiration from the WPCU materials to create something entirely new. Communities should also feel free to use the WPCU materials not only during the traditional Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25 in the northern hemisphere), but throughout the year, to pray for Christian unity and to foster ecumenical fellowship, hospitality, and service.

PLEASE NOTE: All suggestions below can be adapted for in-person or online services / events. We encourage you, at the earliest planning stages, to reach out to members of your community, especially representatives from Black, Indigenous, and People of Colour communities, who have experience with organizing in-person or online ecumenical gatherings.

We also encourage you to inquire about copyright requirements for using texts, music, hymns, and videos / films during in-person and online events. You may wish to invite members of your local organizing committee who have experience with copyright regulations to assist and give them ample time to prepare and troubleshoot.

To assist with the goal of inclusive, ecumenical celebration of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, here are some general suggestions, and a recommended timeline, to help you get started in organizing either in-person events or virtual gatherings. More detailed practical suggestions can be found in the 2025 Annotated Ecumenical Worship Service resource.

General Suggestions:

Note: All 2025 international and Canadian WPCU resources mentioned below are available on www.weekofprayer.ca (English) and www.semainedepriere.ca (French).

- An ecumenical Order of Worship is available for churches and Christian communities that observe the WPCU together through a single common worship service.
- Communities that observe the WPCU daily may use the material from the Reflections and Prayers for the Eight Days: A Journey through the Nicene Creed resource in their worship services or events.
- Prayers from the Ecumenical Worship Service and from the Reflections and Prayers for the Eight Days: A Journey through the Nicene Creed can also be used in other ways as appropriate in your context.
- Those wishing to undertake Bible studies on the 2025 WPCU theme can use the biblical texts, patristic (early Christian) readings, and reflection questions from the Reflections and Prayers for the Eight Days: A Journey through the Nicene Creed resource. Each day the discussions can lead to the responsive prayer included in the material. Additional recommendations and readings specific to the Canadian context can also be found in this resource.
- Those who wish to pray privately may find the material in the Reflections and Prayers for the Eight Days resource helpful for focusing their prayer intentions. They can be mindful that they are in communion with others praying around the world in answering this year's question – "Do you believe?"
- The principal symbol suggested for use in 2025 WPCU ecumenical worship services or events is an individual lighted candle for each participant, symbolizing the light of Christ we share as we are united in God's love. (You can also use a battery-operated candle if you wish.)
- A distinctive feature of this year's WPCU is the inclusion of the Nicene Creed to commemorate the 1700th anniversary of the first Christian Ecumenical Council held in Nicaea (325 AD), along with readings by early Christian writers. As part of your WPCU worship service, Bible study, or event, you may also wish to invite the churches in your community to share the creeds and affirmations of faith they use in their traditions, or to share why they do not use a formal creed or an affirmation of faith. This could be a wonderful opportunity to share what we believe with one another and to gain a deeper understanding of who we are, who our neighbours are, and how God's presence moves through all of us in different and beautiful ways. If you choose to share in this way, we invite you to consider how you might encourage all participants to listen to one another with respect and with love.
- Another emphasis in this year's WPCU is hospitality and inclusivity of all expressions of Christian faith, which we are called to extend as we seek to welcome and include everyone in the WPCU events.

Recommended Timeline:

4-6 months prior

- Download the 2025 international and Canadian WPCU resources and read through the suggestions for organizing WPCU ecumenical worship services, Bible studies, and other events. You might also be inspired by the photos and stories from previous years' WPCU events across Canada published online at www.weekofprayer.ca / www.semainedepriere.ca!

- Reach out to faith leaders in your neighbourhood by phone, email, or by visiting their place of worship; invite them (or their representatives) to participate in a 2025 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity planning meeting.
- Because care, understanding, and hospitality among credal and non-credal churches is key to this year's WPCU, you may wish to be intentional in inviting representatives from various churches to participate in your WPCU worship service or event to share the light of Christ. How this might be done will be very specific to your local context.
- Depending on your local context, appropriate hymns and songs that highlight this year's WPCU theme can be substituted for those suggested in the Canadian materials. Your community may also prefer to select additional music for the gathering / opening and closing times. Adapt the Order of Worship to your own situation. We also invite you to consult the 2025 Canadian Hymn Suggestions WPCU resource. You may also consider using pre-recorded hymns or music in both in-person and online WPCU events.
- Gather leaders interested in planning an event for a meeting and select the date / time and the venue for in-person events, or the platform / registration / login information for online events. At the meeting, divide tasks (for example, event promotion / communications, worship planning / bulletins, music / musicians, hospitality / refreshments, children's story time / activities).
- Craft a 'Save the Date' media release; decide how you will use social media to promote and report on your event(s). For social media posts this year, use #WPCU2025 or #weekofprayer (for posts in English) and #SPUC2025 or #semainedepriere (for posts in French).
- Print an appropriate number of posters for advertising your event(s) in your parishes / congregations and in your community.

2 months prior

- Hold a follow-up planning meeting; divide worship service or event leadership roles; finalize the Ecumenical Worship Service and select hymns and other music; decide whether you will use pre-recorded music or videos; decide whether you will require people to register for in-person or online events; print additional posters or other promotional materials, as necessary.
- Finalize plans to promote your event(s) in each participating parish / congregation and in the wider community: for example, assign someone to place posters in grocery stores, libraries, and other public locations; craft another media release with more details about your event(s); divide posters for distribution in local churches; plan to include the details of your event(s) on various church websites and social media.
- Share your event(s) with us for promotion via The Canadian Council of Churches channels at www.weekofprayer.ca / www.semainedepriere.ca or by emailing us at wpcu-spuc@councilofchurches.ca.

2-4 weeks prior

- Communicate with all participating churches; remind them to promote your WPCU event(s) in their worship bulletins, announcements, on their websites / social media, and with posters.

1-2 weeks prior

- Hold a final meeting to confirm all arrangements (event staffing, hospitality, online platform and tech support); walk through the worship service or event outline with leaders and musicians; finalize the bulletin (hardcopy or digital) to be used during your worship service or event.
- Print bulletins or distribute a digital copy to participants.

At event

- For in-person events: Place hospitality ministers / greeters at the doors of the venue, so that people who are unfamiliar with the space can be welcomed, provided with a worship aid or program and a candle, and directed to seating.
- For online events: Designate someone to open your online event early, greet people as they join, and give instructions to have a candle ready.
- If you are incorporating the lighting of candles in your event, everyone should be given an individual candle as they arrive at in-person events. If the host faith community uses candles with drip guards on Christmas Eve or Easter, you can use those. Or you can use battery-operated candles. For online events, participants can be encouraged to light a candle or a battery-operated candle at home.
- At the beginning of your in-person event, ask your worship / event leader – or someone from the host parish / congregation – to let everyone know where the washrooms are located and whether there is a wheelchair-accessible space for those with mobility issues, as you are expecting a number of people who are probably unfamiliar with your space.
- Capture information about how many faith communities are represented via a guest register or online registration.
- Photos / video recordings: At in-person events, assign a photographer / videographer to capture some moments to share via traditional or social media. Post a sign on all doors with a standardized message, such as: “Please be aware that photographs may be taken at today’s event and may be used in church media or by The Canadian Council of Churches and its ecumenical partners (in print or online) to promote and share this event. Your participation today constitutes your agreement to have your photograph taken and used in this way.” This notice can also have a little camera icon, such as this one: . At online events, assign someone to make a video recording and to take screenshots. At the beginning of your online event, ask for your participants’ permission to record and to take screenshots. Those who do not wish to participate in this way can turn off their cameras.
- Use hashtags #WPCU2025 or #weekofprayer (for posts in English) and #SPUC2025 or #semainedepriere (for posts in French) when you share photos or stories from your WPCU worship service or event on social media.
- At the conclusion of the event, speak with participants to ask about their experience and / or to gather material for an article (make sure to get permission if you will attribute any quotes).
- If you would like to share your photos, videos, quotes or stories on the WPCU website (www.weekofprayer.ca / www.semainedepriere.ca) and on The Canadian Council of Churches’ social media, please contact our WPCU Program Coordinator, Marina Fanous, at wpcu-spuc@councilofchurches.ca.

After event

- As soon as you are able, meet briefly with the organizing team to reflect on your event(s) and to collect ideas on what went well and what you would change for next year.
